Pan Macmillan moves to Publishers Group Canada

Following the news of the imminent closure of the Harper Collins warehouse facility in Canada, Pan Macmillan today announces that it will be represented by Publishers Group Canada (PGC) with effect from July 1st.

Harper Collins Canada took over sales and distribution for Pan Macmillan from H.B. Fenn in June 2011.

Graham Fidler, PGC Executive Vice-President, said: “PGC is honoured to be partnering with Pan Macmillan in Canada. To represent such a storied, ambitious publisher is going to be a real pleasure.”

Jonathan Atkins, Pan Macmillan International Director, said; “We were keen to retain local distribution in Canada for our increasingly successful list and in PGC and Raincoast Books we have teamed up with the best distributor in the market, as voted by Canadian booksellers. From July 1st all Macmillan titles from UK and US will be available through the same facility.”

Detailed instructions for order processing, returns and cash collection will be announced shortly.

Pan Macmillan is the publisher of Globe and Mail bestselling authors, Karen Swan, Helen Edwards & Jenny Lee Smith and the 15 million copy worldwide bestselling author Peter James.
